

Western Australia Age Services Industry Forums

LASA Age Services Industry Forums are designed to provide solid guidance for managers of age services—offering credible information and valuable insight to support positive change. Held across Australia, these forums bring you practical hints, tips and tools to optimise the performance of your business. The interactive sessions will delve into the current state of the age services industry, and provide valuable information about the latest in: employment relations, residential care, home care, retirement living and seniors housing. You will learn about important legislative changes that affect your business operations, and be kept up-to-date with the Royal Commission and key outcomes.

Open to LASA Members and non-Members*, the forum program also provides a great opportunity to network and collaborate with colleagues and thought-leaders across the age services industry. Join us at our next forum and find the support you need to lead your business with confidence. These forums are FREE* to attend.
